

CONTENTS (VOLUME 15)

Volume 15, No. 1

- An Evolving Past: The Story of Historical Fiction and Nonfiction for Children 1
Suzanne Rahn
- Grandfather's Chair*: Hawthorne's "Deeper History" of
New England 27
Elizabeth Goodenough
- Dodge and Motley: History in *Hans Brinker 43
Susan R. Gannon and Ruth Anne Thompson
- The Anvil or the Crucible? Narrations of Youthful Experience in Nazi Germany 59
Hamida Bosmajian
- Writing Lives 78
Natalie Bober
- Re-Imagining the Past: An Interview with Leon Garfield 89
Roni Natov
- History as Spiritual Healer: The Messianic Vision in Leon Garfield's *The Confidence Man 116
Roni Natov

Volume 15, No. 2

- Editors' Note vii
- Two Newbery Medal Winners and the Feminine Mystique:
Hitty, Her First Hundred Years and *Miss Hickory 1
Lois R. Kuznets
- Missing in Action: Confederate Females in Civil War Novels 15
Elizabeth C. Clark

(continued on next page)

Searching for Great-Great-Grandmother: Powerful Women in George MacDonald's Fantasies	27
Judith Gero John
"The Miracle of the Web": Community, Desire, and Narrativity in Charlotte's Web	35
Ashraf H. A. Rushdy
The Cult of Peter Rabbit: A Barthesian Analysis	61
W. Nikola-Lisa
Return to the Island of Mist	67
Henry Innes MacAdam
"A humble Spirit under Correction": Tracts, Hymns, and the Ideology of Evangelical Fiction for Children, 1780-1820	72
Lynne Vallone
Booklog:
Russell Hoban Reads Russell Hoban: Children's Books	96
Alida Allison
In the Great Green Room	107
Geraldine DeLuca
"It Tastes Like More": Notes on Teaching Reading and Writing Across the Curriculum in a Bilingual Classroom	113
Eileen Early
Bird on a Wire: A Review of Jane Schwartz's Caught	119
Julia Hirsch
Bearing Witness to the Unbearable: The Bombing of Hiroshima as Treated in Selected Children's Books	123
Isabella Marinoff

